CADETS TOP AGAIN

It's getting to be a habit! For the third time in the last four years, the S.A.C. Cadet Corps has been awarded the Strathcona Cup for the best closed Corps in Ontario.

This year's edition of the Corps was the largest in the School's history with a strength of 374 boys. The 79th Annual Inspection on April 29 was once again a superb performance, featuring a moving tribute to those Andreans who lost their lives in the two World Wars. The Inspecting Officer was Brigadier General J.A. Cotter, C.D., Commandant of Canadian Land Forces Command and Staff College in Kingston, Ontario. General Cotter, an Old Boy, graduated from St. Andrew's in 1951. Ideal weather added to the pleasure of the large crowd on hand for the event.

The 1983 Corps was commanded by

Cadet Lt. Col. J.R. Kingsley Ward, son of Mr. & Mrs. G. Kingsley Ward of Richmond Hill, Ontario. The Ellsworth Trophy for best platoon went to #5 Platoon commanded by Cadet Lt. M.A. Dynes. The Capt. MacPherson Award for best cadet was won by Jamie Comfort, son of Mr. & Mrs. John R. Comfort of King Township. Best Company was "B" Company commanded by Cadet Capt. J.Y.L. Germain.

ANNUAL DINNER SPOTLIGHTS DICK GIBB

The retirement this year of Dick Gibb, 37 years on the staff, perhaps brought the end of an era at S.A.C. It was only fitting that he should be the guest of honour at the Association Annual Dinner, held on May 6 at the Toronto Hilton Harbour Castle in Toronto. 418 Old Boys and fathers turned out for the occasion, which is a new record for the Dinner.

David Rea '53, President of the Association, was Master of Ceremonies. Stan Macfarlane, who had demanded the opportunity to retaliate for Dick's roasting of him on his retirement last year, led off the team of orators. He was followed by the Hon. Frank Miller, Provincial Treasurer in Bill Davis' Ontario government and former S.A.C. staff member, who had several anecdotes about his relationship with Dick during those days. Bob Meagher, breakfast mate of Dick's for the past few years and member of the St. Andrew's English Dept., added the finishing touches with a hilarious account of the life and exploits of Richard Carver Gibb from babyhood to the present. Dick was, naturally, called upon for a speech, but found himself, probably for the first time in his career, able to say only a few words. David Rea, on behalf of the Association, presented him with a ship's clock and a barometer for his boat.

A feature of Association Dinners in recent years has been a reunion of the graduating classes of 25 and 10 years ago. Twenty members of the Class of '58 were on hand, and they presented Dick with his former cane, as well as a Head Table chair in the Dining Hall in his honour. The 1973 class mustered 22 members and seemed to enjoy themselves thoroughly.

This year a 50th anniversary reunion was added. 24 Old Boys of the 1933 era came, some from such distant points as California, Calgary and Florida. They made a presentation to the School of a Head Table chair in memory of T. George Armstrong who was Head Prefect in the 1932-33 year and a long time member of the Board of Governors. George died in 1981.

All of the reunion years were invited to St. Andrew's the day after the Dinner to have lunch at the Headmaster's house with Anne and Bob Bedard. For many it was a revelation to see the expansion and improvement in physical facilities.

Another popular feature of the Dinner is the raffle, which helps to cover the cost of invited guests. Winner of the top prize of a trip for two to Jamaica was John Kilpatrick '41.

The Association is indebted to the following firms for donations of prizes:

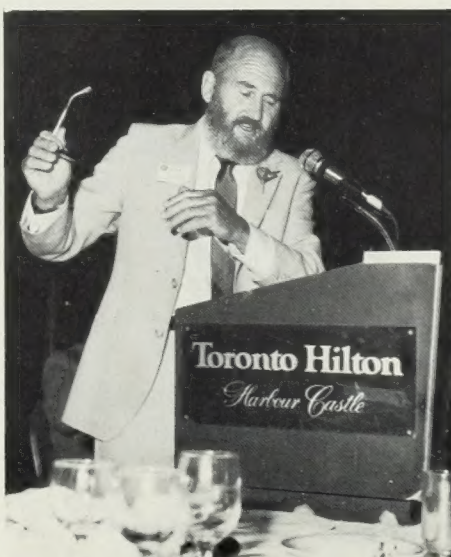

Air Jamaica
Jamaican Tourist Board
Wharton Construction (David Wharton)
Dalton Engineering (Peter Dalton)
Cochrane-Dunlop (Dolliver Frederick)
Cruickshank Motors (Al Cruickshank)
Skyline Marina Ltd. (Cameron Wardlaw)
Inniskillin Wines (John Brown)
Mother Parker's Tea (Paul Jr. & Mike Higgins)
William Mara Company
International Waxes (Ross Reucassel)
A. Holliday & Company Inc. (Andrew Holliday)
Eastwood Food Services (David Cross)
Chevron Awards Groups (Douglas Long)
Dack Shoes Ltd. (Bob Dack)
Parfums Donelian
Circa Insurance Agency Ltd. (Michael Dunn)
Gilbey's Canada (Bob Macdonald)

Highlight of the festivities is the presentation by Dave Denison and Ron Pickering on behalf of the class of '58 to Dick of his former cane, now retired and suitably mounted for display.

"And there was our hero, with a full head of hair -"

"All right, Meagher, I won't forget all those things you said about me."

- but look at him now!"

Father and son team of haggis bearers, Fred Leslie '54 and son, Rodger '82, set it down gingerly as Lloyd MacPherson watches anxiously.

Lloyd gets set to slice the haggis.

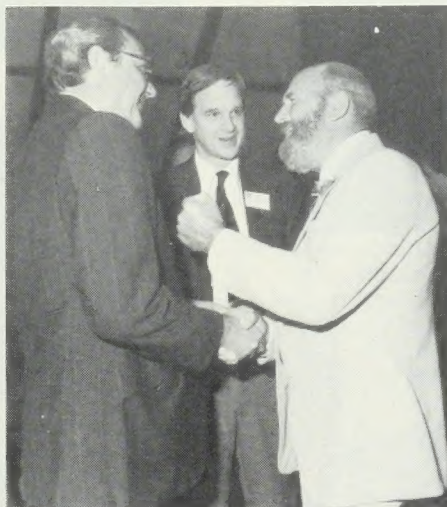

Roy Lowndes '12 assures Tom Chipman '47 he can still shoot his age at Toronto Hunt.

Al Cruickshank '55 tries to convince Bob Haynes '53 to buy an Old Boys tie from the Ladies Guild display.

Former Headmaster Tom Hockin chats with Fraser Hale '50.

Dick tells Bill Lovering '52 and Barry Wansbrough '54 what they need is a bicycle trip in Europe.

Colin Durie '67, up from Florida for the occasion, catches up on Bob Perry '68.

Bob Gillan, Jim Herder and D'Arcy Reade, fellow classmates of '64.

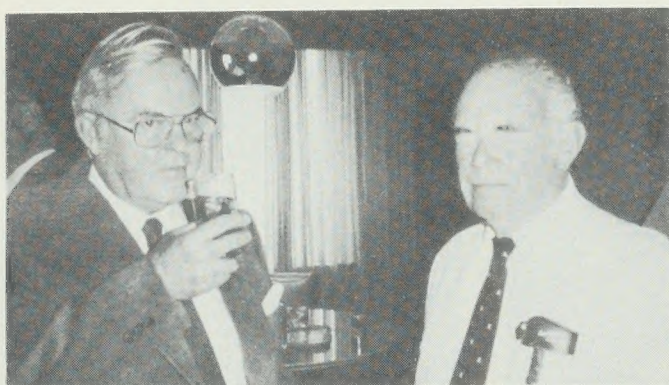

Looks like Bill Andrews '53 is doing a selling job on Gerald Omstead '52 and John Gillberry '53.

Enjoying reminiscences of 50 years and more ago in their suite are: -

1. Bill Jennings and Jim Shapley
2. Bill Sinclair and John Ellis
3. Tom Gordon and Alf Cox
4. Bob Waller, John A. Green, Ian
Jennings and Joe McIver
5. Bud Cox and Bill Plaunt
6. Peter Parker and Tony Corson

A CONTRIBUTION FROM DICK GIBB

This is the first of what we hope will be a series of briefs on Old Boys with whom we, perhaps, have been out of touch, or who have been faced with some out of the ordinary day by day events, or who simply have something of interest to tell.

MIGUEL TEJADA (TIJ) S.A.C. 1949-55. I visited him for five days this past November '82. It should have been for the three days of half term break, but he and his brother, George, insisted on telegraphing the School for an extension.

They met me at the Santo Domingo airport. George, I had met fairly recently, but Miguel, I hadn't seen for 27 years. The rapport which we had found during his schooldays, was immediately re-established.

We drove into Santo Domingo and sat at a very ordinary oceanside bar for aperitifs. George had pointed out a cannon ball lodged in a tower, shot from the ship of "that pirate Drake". I asked if I was right in assuming this was the same gentleman that we know as "Sir Francis". From there the aperitifs were washed down with odd bits of historical discussion and I found it disappointing (though somewhat natural since they lived in Santo Domingo, the oldest city in the Western Hemisphere and the very heart of Columbus' worship and myth) to realize that they had never researched their history sufficiently to determine what a 'donkey' Columbus in fact was.

So we just talked. Talked of various events and people: Alfredo Garcia (48-53) blowing a hole in Gregg's radiator; Irving Lusher's stories of Alpine skiing in Bermuda; Peter Ketchum stuffing the locks to the Physics Lab . . . all the usual malarky.

However, it is not the purpose here to carry on a recitation of such trivialities or to give a geographical account of a great five days in the Dominican Republic.

Miguel is a remarkable man. A compulsion has developed within me to tell you something of what has happened to him over the past years. My information grew slowly during my visit. Never contributed eagerly by Miguel, but gradually developing in bits and pieces on a beach, in the back of pickup crossing formidable hills and atrocious road surfaces, in bars in Santo Domingo, in his home.

Perhaps it is enlightening here to record a conversation which occurred late in the visit, but which may explain some of what follows.

I asked Miguel: "What influence has your small stature had on your life? Does it explain the fact that you appeared at times to be a remarkably aggressive, ornery little devil?"

"No - my height, or lack of it, in itself is of no importance. However, I always resented calculated humiliation based on my small stature."

From there I went on to recall certain long forgotten events. The dormitory in Mac House; the back of Don's truck from Aurora; the Cadet Corps - events involving Tij which had been a complete puzzle to us sage educators of the time. He explained them all in terms of humiliation.

"I will NOT be humiliated"

For being only 5'1/2", he had a remarkable athletic record at SAC, and the athletic program, he believes, gave him strength during the hard years to follow. This is doubtful - the strength was already there. He was Captain of the First Cricket team and was probably one of the best leg spin bowlers the School has had. He played 2nd team football, and won a Silver Medal in boxing. He was the most valuable player on the SAC BASKETBALL team which that year won the COSSA championship with such outstanding athletes on the team as Don Stringer, Johnny Vaughan, Jim Cooper, Dick Thompson, etc.

In 1953 he came with Stan Macfarlane and me to Europe and recalls some of the longest and most miserable hours of his life in company with Tony King aboard a tuna fishing boat out of St. Jean de Luz . . . and when they missed the tide on their return to port forcing them to stay a further six hours on the heaving swell, his misery turned to despair. Surprisingly he still feels well toward Macfarlane.

At Bishop's University on turning out for the initial basketball practice, he was given the usual advice about the necessity for having at least some height. He made the University team that first year and won the MVP award.

. . . and so he returned to the Dominican Republic which, since 1930, had become the private hunting ground, sports arena, estate, brothel, source of income for the dictator Trujillo. By the 1940's and early 50's, all the evils, cruelties and abuses of dictatorship were in full bloom.

George and Miguel's father was a doctor, fiercely anti-Trujillo and very much respected by those to whom he was known.

George, at school in Canada, was kept away from the Dominican Republic, but it was now that Miguel became more and more involved in the underground movement against Trujillo. Then and now, as far as I can gather, his politics are neither Communistic nor extreme Right. He simply has a fanatic belief in Man's right to the basic freedoms of life. This may be a very inadequate assessment, but beyond that we did not discuss political creeds.

His friends at that time were, therefore, men of all parties - anyone who was genuinely anti-Trujillo.

Obviously it could not be long before he was thrown into jail. This happened on January 18, 1960. I did know that he had been subjected to some physical abuse, but I did not know to what extent.

We've seen and grown accustomed to authentic and incredible films and photos of Auschwitz, Belsen, Buchenwald and other human cesspits. Maybe some of us have known former inmates. I have. It is another world - an unreal world. I have, though, never discussed with anyone their life in a concentration camp.

With Miguel I did. It evolved gradually and naturally. At SAC we had discussed the question of "bravery" and "cowardice". I have always maintained, and still do, that anyone can have any information known by one by just beginning to lay back and pull away the first fingernail.

That, however, is immaterial here, Miguel believed fervently in his cause and, in case some of you are under 50, the justification for fighting Trujillo is as obvious as the justification for fighting Idi Amin.

During his six months the first time in jail, and five other visits over a two year period, he was subjected to almost every form of human indignity, agony and misery. He was strapped naked to a rack and flogged; the electric 'experiments' were performed; he lay amidst filth on floors bleeding and waiting only for repetition.

On my last evening in Santo Domingo in a bar built into the limestone amidst stalactites and stalgmities he said: "At least I can say of myself 'I never told them one damn thing!' "

He lives quietly. Amongst other things, he has a farm near Nagua, some four kilometres from Santo Domingo. We dropped in briefly and there on the walls were photos of cricket and basketball teams, but not of the Cadet Corps!

His family is truly delightful. A very lovely wife, Sonja, and two beautiful daughters, Angie (19 years) and Barbara (16 years). This is not simply a polite expression of gratitude for all they did for me. They were all . . . so

HONG KONG GROUP MEETS

On Canada Day, July 1, this group of Old Boys and present students in Hong Kong met for dinner at the "1 Club". Included in the group are Bob Dack, Tony Wong, Tony Chang, Paul Cheung, George and Peter Kee, Matthew Ko, Francis Yu and Raymond Leung. They plan to meet periodically so any other Old Boys who wish to be included should contact Bob Dack at Wood Gundy Ltd. office, 21st Floor, Caxton House, 1 Duddell Street, or Raymond Leung, Gammon Building Construction Ltd., 15th Floor, Hennessey Centre, 500 Hennessey Road in Hong Kong.

GIBB CONTINUES

charming. But that wasn't all. An 18 month tornado in diapers! Super active and obviously not under any heavy disciplinary pressure from adoring parents.

I said to Miguel: "You couldn't possibly be a revolutionary now".

"Why not?"

"I could make you talk . . . quickly and fluently . . . with no difficulty whatsoever."

"How?"

"Through Sonja; through Angie and Barbara; and most easily of all through Thor."

(The 15 year old son, Miguel, I never met. He was at school).

So I left from the airport in a torrential downpour and at least was able to give Miguel 'my' foul weather jacket (left aboard my boat by Dick Thompson, SAC 54-55) to shelter him back to the car park.

He very much wants to regain touch with so many of those he was fond of at S.A.C. I do not know all the names, but certainly among those mentioned were - Gordon Robertson, Dick Rice, Jim Cooper, Don Stringer, Johnny Vaughan, Dick Thompson, Jack Mizrahi, Duncan Campbell, Joe Mott, Joe Beltran, Hank Willoughby, and many others - especially Bark Ryall.

VOLLEYBALL AT S.A.C.

Five years ago, a sport new to Saint Andrew's was introduced - Volleyball. Our beginning was a humble one. There were only five or six players, no league play, no regular referees, a rookie coach, and not much interest. The team played three or four games that season. The story was much the same during our second season, but the third year was different.

By now the coach had some idea of how to win games, there were twenty or so regular players, and we now had a seasoned serious player join the team - Joe Goodyear. Joe played a superior game the whole season in spite of an injured wrist. He became team captain and introduced the team to new plays and provided a new feeling of self-confidence. The highlight of this season was the team's winning a tournament at Stouffville High.

Our fourth season saw the return of Joe - and the experienced Duffield and Bourne twins, Greg Bradshaw and Jeremy Pierpoint. S.A.C. hosted the first tournament held after regular season play. The school finished in second place losing to a very strong U.C.C. team.

This last season was our most successful. We began with a goodly number of veterans returning, and a competent newcomer, Mark Murphy. Before any games were played, the coach Ian Wilkie, had a major car accident. His place was taken by Mrs. Diane Skelton. Pierpoint and Murphy showed their skill and leadership qualities, and helped train the team. Help also came from Mr. Nannuchie of Sacred Heart, and our own Mrs. Joe Haines. The team was undefeated in league play, winning over sixty games. At the end of the season, the team again hosted the I.S.A.A. Volleyball tournament, and emerged victorious to become I.S.A.A. champions.

Five years have certainly seen some changes in the Volleyball situation. There are now many keen players, a list of successes, a permanent I.S.A.A. league for first and second teams and challenges for the future.

It is hoped that next season will be as productive as the last.

GOLF TEAM WINS

The St. Andrew's golf team won the ISAA Invitation Tournament hosted by S.A.C. on May 25, 1983. Todd Dow was low scorer and other team members were Dave Campbell, Brent Kelly, Robert Brown and David Wilson.

RIFLE TEAM

In the last three years, St. Andrew's has brought the Rifle Team back to the sports curriculum. The Rifle Team is not an adjunct to the cadet corps but is now a fully fledged, competitive sport within the athletic programme of the school.

Our league consists of Appleby, Ridley, Upper Canada and S.A.C. in the Independent Schools, but our keenest competition comes from rifle clubs and cadet corps in Southern Ontario. The Queen's York Rangers have been our strongest competition to date and our team had gone undefeated for two years until we were narrowly defeated by the Q.Y.R. Next year we hope to be able to compete against the recently founded rifle teams of Trinity and Pickering Colleges.

This year marked a first for the rifle team when we qualified for the Ontario Rifle Association Provincial Finals. This was our first ever large competition where we could test our nerves and skills against the pressures of such a shoot. The team placed a gallant fifth only losing fourth by 8 points to the Q.Y.R., and only 48 points out of first place. Struan Robertson tied for fourth place in the individual standings. The team looks forward to this competition again next year now that we have the confidence to compete in a high-pressure match.

The rifle team began three years ago firing the heavy W.W.II issue Lee Enfield but due to the efforts of Mr. Hamilton of the St. Andrew's College Foundation and one or two anonymous donors the team now has four top grade Anschutz 1403D target rifles. As a result, the team's scores have increased tremendously from a top individual score of 87 three years ago to a score of 97 this year.

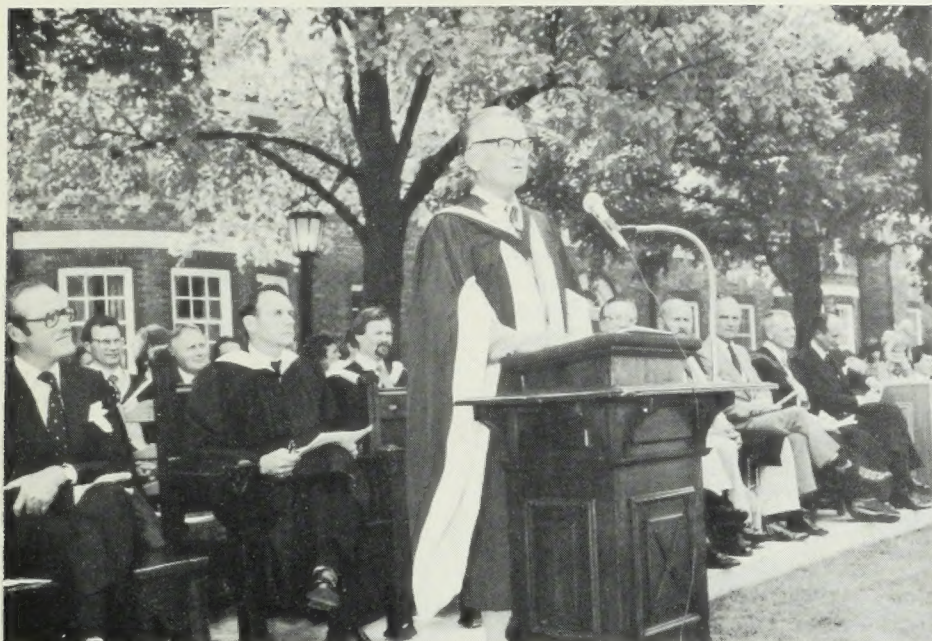

Thanks must also go to Mr. West of the Athletic department who has provided much needed equipment and encouragement for the team.

This year the St. Andrew's College Rifle Trophy for the highscore of the year is shared by Mark Moores and Beric Farmer who tied with a score of 97. The winners of the Laurence Crowe Memorial Cup and The Laurence Crowe Memorial Medal were Struan Robertson and David Faulkner respectively. The M.V.P. award was won by Struan Robertson and the M.I.P. award was won by David Faulkner.

Our team, consisting of Struan Robertson, David Faulkner, Edward Heffer, Mark Moores, Tom Ulekas and Beric Farmer are all returning to S.A.C. next year with the firm resolve of bringing the Ontario Championship to St. Andrew's in 1984.

PRIZE DAY 1983

Dr. J. Robert Coulter, D.Litt., guest speaker, addresses the large gathering. Dr. Coulter was Headmaster of St. Andrew's from 1958 to 1974.

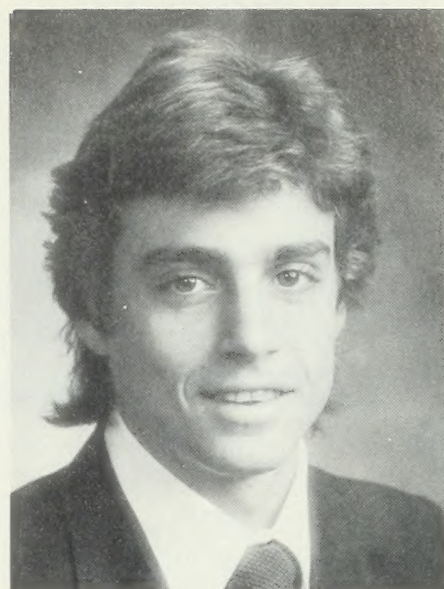

Kevin Schofield receives congratulations from former Board Chairman Gage H. Love, for his outstanding achievement in Upper Sixth (Grade 13). Son of Mr. & Mrs. John G. Schofield of Bogota, Columbia, Kevin stood first in the graduating class with 96.2%. His many awards included the Laidlaw Trophy, presented in memory of the late Robertson Laidlaw who was on the staff of St. Andrew's from 1909 to 1960, to the student in Upper Sixth who has won for his Clan the greatest number of points during his last two years at the School; and the Macdonald Medal in honour of the late Dr. D. Bruce Macdonald, Headmaster from 1900 to 1935, to the boy most distinguished in studies and athletics taken together. Kevin was accepted at Massachusetts Institute of Technology but has elected to attend University of Waterloo where he was awarded a scholarship.

Stephen Suarez is presented with the Brooks Cup for Senior Debating by Mrs. Thomas Marshall, President of the Ladies Guild. Stephen was also awarded the Charles Ashton Medal for English, the Lieutenant Governor's Silver Medal and the Headmaster's Medal.

W. C. Lawrence '49, Vice Chairman of the Board of Governors, congratulates John Dunlap for heading the Upper Second form (Gr. 8).

Bruce Bicknell, who graduated this year from St. Andrew's has to qualify as the hard luck guy of the year. He reached the finals in the five major North American squash championships at the Under 19 level, only to lose each match after five games! Bruce made the finals in the U.S. Hardball, Canadian Hard Ball, Ontario Hard Ball, and the Canadian and Ontario Softball championships. The entire St. Andrew's community congratulates him on this fine performance. With one more year of eligibility, perhaps 1984 will be his year.

Headmaster Bob Bedard presents a model sailboat to Dick Gibb who has retired after thirty-seven years service on the staff, as token of the School's retirement gift of a suit of sails for his boat.

1ST HOCKEY

1982 - 1983

In November of 1982, the members of the First Hockey team set a number of very high goals for themselves. These goals were as follows: first, win the Independent School League Championship and go undefeated, second to compete in the Upper Canada College Hockey Tournament and the Notre Dame College Hockey Tournament and thirdly, to win the Georgian Bay Secondary School Association (GBSSA) Hockey Championship and to be the representative of this region at the All Ontario Hockey Championships (OFSAA).

This set of extremely high goals had never been attempted in the history of the school. The First hockey team was made up of a number of young, talented individuals with a great deal of potential. However, they were in need of a great deal of coaching which Mr. Dunford and Mr. Jackson were to provide.

The captains, Geoff Crawford, Ted Kovacs and John Byberg, demonstrated tremendous leadership both on and off the ice. The returning veteran forwards John Archibald, Tom Hussey and Derrick Baker continued to amaze our opposition and impress the scouts of this season. The rookie forwards, Dave Campbell, Paul Keating, John Tyner, Steve Bottomley, Todd Dow and Mark Murphy, had little trouble fitting in on this team. The Baker line with Dow and Murphy was our top scoring line in our I.S.L. games this season. Campbell, Hussey and Keating's line was just awesome all season with their crossing patterns at the blue line and the goal mouth pass and tip in goal from Hussey and Keating. Archibald's line with Tyner and Bottomley came into their own in Hamilton where they were our most effective line.

Our young defence of Gord Marshall, Robin Comfort and John Barker performed very well even under some terrific pressure put on them when injuries put some of our top players on the sidelines.

Almost all the goals set out to reach were reached. We worked hard throughout the ISL season to finish with a perfect record 14-0-0 and the John Wright Cup (ISL championship). During the Christmas Holidays we competed in the U.C.C. Hockey tournament against fine American prep school teams. We won the silver medal losing to an excellent school from Belmont Hill, however it was the first time any Canadian team made the finals in the three years the tournament has been in existence.

Towards the end of February we travelled to Wilcox, Saskatchewan the home of the famous Notre Dame Hounds and competed in their tournament. When they competed in Toronto in November they were touted as being the finest High School Hockey team in Canada. In a very emotional final game St. Andrew's beat Notre Dame 2-1 in overtime on a goal by Paul Keating. Ted Kovacs was simply outstanding and many of the scouts at the final game said they have not seen as fine a job of goal tending in a number of years, and he was talented as many Major Junior goalies. Every member of the team played their finest hockey of the year including Robin Comfort's three stops on Mitch Messier, Jon Barker's submarine body checks and Gord Marshall's personal trophy. This was our proudest moment. We had beaten the best in Canada.

From this point on our total concentration was on the OFSAA championships in Hamilton. To win a tournament like the All Ontario you not only needed skill and intensity but you also needed luck! Unfortunately luck was not with us as our Captain, Geoff Crawford was still recovering from a pulled shoulder injury and Tom Hussey, one of the team's two M.V.P.'s broke his hand while playing for his Aurora team. These difficulties coupled with a lack of good breaks were too much for our young team. We played well but lost two close games which eliminated us from further competition. Next season with a little more maturity and a few good breaks we hope to go a little further at the "All Ontario."

The First team would like to thank our loyal fans for their support this year, particularly at the "All Ontario".

We only wish we had given them something to cheer about. The 83-84 season should be another fine one for St. Andrew's hockey, as only four of our players will be graduating.

Both Mr. Dunford and I have enjoyed working with these young men who have represented our school so well and a special thanks to Mr. Dunford who gives so much of his time to maintain the high standard of excellence here at St. Andrew's.

A.B.J. Jackson

MORE HOCKEY

Looking at the record of the other S.A.C. hockey teams, it is clear that the Firsts will have plenty of material to choose from in the years immediately ahead. In ISAA play, the Second team finished in second place, with the Under 16's and Under 14's both winning their divisions. A total of 98 games were played by S.A.C. teams against other schools of which St. Andrew's won 77, lost 18 and tied 3. A fine tribute to the calibre of coaching the boys are getting.

OLD BOYS NEWS

- '12 JUDGE FRANK DENTON remembers with amusement that in his days as a boarder, butter was not served at the evening meal. However, he solved this shortcoming by filling a small paper cup with butter at lunch and keeping it for dinner! Eventually he was discovered by Dr. Macdonald and got a good one or two on the hand with the cane, but he says it was worth the pain and suffering.
